New Charter.

The Consumers' Light and Power Company, of Radeigh, is chartered for the purpose of operating a light and power plant for the town of Sanford, Moore county. The capital is $10,000, and the incorporators principally New York capitalists.

The Wilmington Granite Brick Co., of Wilmington, was granted a charter today with $100,000 capital authorized and $25,000 subscribed, for the manufacture of brick, piping and similar products. The incorporators are Geo. W. Kidder, F. H. Smith and T. H. Wright.

Another charter is to the Myrtle Desk Company, of High Point; capital, $150,000 authorized, and $40,000 subscribed, by H. W. Fraser and others.

In his report to the General Assembly, just submitted, Adjutant-General T. H. Robertson urges that the annual appropriation to the North Carolina National Guard be increased to $22,600, and that capitains of companies be made responsible for the property of the companies, receiving for the assumption of this responsibility $100 per year. He urges that the Legislature enact the new military code prepared under the direction of the Governor and recently made public, as a substitute for the present military law of the State, as embodied in chapter 102 of the 1906 Revisal.

BETTER SCHEDULES.

Southern Pleased With New Arrangement.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SPENCER, N. C., January II.—A party of Southern Radiway officials, including General Manager C. H. Ackert, Transportation Manager J. M. Shields, Superintendent G. R. Loyal, and others, were in Spencer yeşterday and last night inspecting the large plant here and watching the operation of passenger trains under the new schedule, which became effective last Sunday. Nearly all of the trains are now running on time, and in many respects a much better service is being given the traveling public than under the former arrangement. Traveling people seem to be pleased with the change, while many engineers and trainmen do not like the new schedule on account of the slow movement of trains and long lay-over at other points. rangement.

Riss-This Company is prepared to do a General Banking Business, and will extend accommodations to its customers so entitled on of this afternoon, Judge Justice fined the defendant $250 and the cost. The con-tempt proceedings grow out of a case that has been on the docket in the county that has been on the docket in the county for a year or more, charsing Rigsbee with illegal voting in the municipal elec-tion two years ago. Judge Justice not prossed this case. The contempt charge was brought against Rigsove because he summoned witnesses to Raleigh to the Federal Court while the case was being tried in Durham. In this he made efforts to defeat the ends of justice here. The case on this occasion was sent before the grand jury two separate these first it was quashed, and the second time there was no true bill. The solicitor carried the case before the jury at the present term of court, and they found a true bill. W. T. Rigsbee is from a good family, and is considered a wealthy man. This occasion is his first appearance in court character.

Judge Justice also placed the defendant under $2,000 bond for his appearance at each term of court within a year's time.

TWO COTTON MILLS IN FINANCIAL TOILS

The Vermont and Southern Close Down-Receiver to Be

CHARLOTTE, N. C., January II.—A flurry was caused here to-day by the announcement that two cotton mills, the Vermont and the Southern, at Besser.er City, Gaston county, near here, are in financial difficulties. The plants closed down Thursday, and it is understood that immediate application is to be made by creditors to have Caesar Cone, the Greensboro Mill magnate, appointed receiver. The Southern Mill was incorporated in 1895, and has 15,000 spindles and 401 broad looms, J. M. Odell, of Concord, is president; S. J. Durham, of Bessemer City, secretary. It made madras and yarns. The Vermont was chartered two years ago, has 5,000 spindles and 95 looms. D. A. Garrison, of Bessemer City, is president; J. A. Balley & Co., of New York and Philadelphia, are the sales agents. No details are ascertainable as to the cause or extent of failure. CHARLOTTE, N. C., January 11 .- A

Miss Shelton Brought to Lynchburg and Is Under Treatment.

burg and Is Under Treatment, Lynchburg, Va., January II.—Mist Gladys Shelton was brought to the city this afternoon from Amherst, and she is under treatment of Dr. C. E. Bussy. Her condition is favorable, though she is very nervous. If her condition warrants the five negroes in the Rustburg jail will probably be brought here tomorrow for identification.

The Amherst county officials, who were very communicative on Tuesday, have now grown reticent and nothing can be learned of their movements, There is, however, a growing belief that the assailant of the young lady is not among the five men held as suspects.

The negroes are being taken from the county jail to-night and secreted in a remote place for fear of a mob. Many believe this to be an unnecessary precaution now, or until the brute be identified by his victim. Then it cannot be foretold what the people of Amherst will de.
